MARY KRAFT FORMS SERVICE DELIVERY PARTNERSHIP

Mary Kraft Staffing and HR Solutions has partnered with Productivity Cubed, an international coaching and consulting firm, to enhance their clients' business success.

The strength of a company's management team determines the strength of the company as a whole. When problems arise at this level and aren't efficiently addressed, the rest of the team is invariably affected and productivity levels are compromised. Often, these problems cannot be adequately addressed without taking the human component into consideration. Consulting and coaching services geared toward a company's problem areas can produce essential changes starting from the top down transforming complacency into productivity, high turnover rates into high retention rates, and general workplace unhappiness into a impassioned workforce that is focused on success.

Mary Kraft Staffing and HR Solutions and have partnered to provide clients with customized solutions that will transform management teams from "business as usual" into highly open and cooperative teams. Mary Kraft and Productivity Cubed will help companies get "unstuck" through the utilization of their combined expertise, resulting in boosted sales and morale, company-wide empowerment, heightened communication and overall growth.
